

Jammu & Kashmir

Single Window Clearance System

With the objective of facilitating a new entrepreneur in getting necessary clearances within a short time, a Single Window Clearance System, for registration of the Industrial Unit, allotment of land, clearance of pollution control Board for commencing construction and certificate of power availability, at the State and District levels, has been set up. A separate notification in this regard will be issued.