

Power Related

The Government is intended to achieve these goals by modernizing the traditional industries, developing world class infrastructure, providing adequate quality power and water, supporting the introduction of State-of-the-art technology in the existing industries, optimizing the utilisation of natural resources, bringing in Central investments, attracting private capital on mutually beneficial terms and making use of the potential of rich human resources.

To ensure uninterrupted quality power to industries and commercial purpose.