

Marketing arrangements will be made for small, tiny, cottage industries, handloom and handicraft.

For the creation of the basic facilities of international level, to enhance capital investment in the industrial areas and invite the private sector for investment and to encourage public private partnership for this purpose