

Ode to entrepreneurial spirit

An entrepreneur is a hero in developed worlds
Or is it that those worlds are developed
'cause they idolize their entrepreneurs

Isn't it the entrepreneurial genes in human beings that have made man out of monkey?
His constant unease with his environs,
His day dreaming,
His restlessness with every facet of an object or a service;
His urge to jump off the cliff

But then why worship,
Is it 'cause:
He has been at the root of every creation and development for humanity -big or small!
He has created new opportunities – and jobs and...
He has spread prosperity far and wide,
He has inspired,
He has led,
He has dared,
He has borne the brunt,
He has celebrated,
He has gone under,
he has risen!.....again!!
like a sphinx !!!

MY MESSAGE as an senior colleague—be proud of being an entrepreneur
'cause whatever you do you create wealth
for the entire society including the parasite!
Never mind!
You have to carry on because the earth rests on your shoulders and you cannot let it down!

[Shri V.K. Agarwal, President FISME during inaugural of SME
Forum, Gurgaon reacting to despondency among MSME entrepreneurs due to Government's apathy]